THE HISTORY (VIA THE BAND):

Mandy Aramouni and Jovana Batkovic were sipping on coffee and decided that due to Mandy's brilliant guitar sound, and Jovana's outrageous stage presence, they had something HUGE going on. A few days later a local drummer, Lisa Paulovcin, was txt messaged to come and jam with the above-mentioned broads. For three months the girls consumed large amounts of beer, peed in the garbage can at the practice space, wrote music, and jammed. Finally, one night under the influence of large amounts of alcohol, they agreed to play their first show. At this point the band consisted of Mandy- guitar, Lisa-drums, and Jovana- vocals. After they rocked, offended a bunch of people, and inspired everyone to masturbate and cry, they realized how HUGE they could be. Another thing became apparent- they needed a bass player! Local bass playing boys were all in their business trying to get in on the HotChaCha phenomena, but the girls were firm- they wanted a girl bass player. That night Heather Gmucs saw the show and fell in love with the band. The next practice she joined HotChaCha and never left. It is then, that HCC was truly created. Mandy, Lisa, Heather, and Jovi became one ultimate machine that will make you laugh, and cry, and masturbate all at once. You can't deny the love.

INDIVIDUAL STATS:

Jovana Batkovic is an immigrant from Bosnia. At the gentle age of 11 she had to leave Bosnia due to the war. She moved to a small city in Germany and lived there until the age of 17 when she finally immigrated to Cleveland, OH with her family. Because of such a worldly experience Jovana brings a unique flair into not simply the performance but also song writing. HotChaCha has songs written in English, German and French. Jovana has not written any in her native tongue yet, but that is the next endeavor! Jovana has a BA in Acting, which only explains the "incredible" stage presence.

Heather Gmucs came from a small town in Ohio called South Euclid. She learned English at a very early age and to this day still speaks it fluently. Heather also continues to be an avid reader with selections ranging from Dick and Jane to Marcus Aurelius. Heather spent a year backpacking across these bountiful United States and traveled for quite some time through South America visiting rain forests, mountains and native peoples that had no clothes on, which is why she currently prefers to perform naked.

Mandy Aramouni has a foreign father, who in turn has a foreign mother, which makes Mandy Lebanese. As a matter of fact Mandy's first language was Lebanese...which she has since forgotten, until she gets mad, then she is fluent in every curse word in aforementioned language. Her influences are Middle Eastern, and her passion is Asian...not sure what that means.

Lisa Paulovcin Lisa Paulovcin was born in a tree house in San Francisco's Haight-Ashbury district. There she inherited countercultural values making her the free spirit she is this present day. Her influences are psychedelic rock, the sexual revolution and using drugs like cannabis and LSD to explore consciousness. *Only part of the above could be proven to be true*
